

Wake Forest Historical Museum

COVID-19 Community Archive Project

The Wake Forest Historical Museum is collecting journal and diary entries, photographs, videos, oral histories and audio recordings and other items that document the experiences of coronavirus pandemic in the Town of Wake Forest. Learn more about the project on our website.

Please include this form with any mailed submissions.

Name:

Email Address:

Phone Number:

Please write a description for each item you submit. What is it? When was it created? Who created it? Why was it created? This information will help future researchers.*

Are you the sole creator of these materials? If "no" or "other" please list the names of the content co-creators, their contact information, and the circumstances of how you came to have the materials. (If two or more people contribute to any donated materials, only one needs to submit the items but everyone must submit a form. Without the appropriate permissions, we cannot add the items to our collections.) *

Yes

No

Other:

----- Please continue to the next page. -----

Wake Forest Historical Museum

Personal Health Information Agreement*

I understand and agree that the submitted material may contain sensitive personal information about me, including personal health information, and that this information may be archived and shared as described above. I agree not to include personally identifiable information of (or information that could allow a third party to identify) others - this includes their personal health information.

Submission Agreement*

I certify that I created and own the copyright to the submitted materials. I will retain rights to these items but agree that this material will be made available to the public for viewing and download by the Wake Forest Historical Museum (WFHM). I acknowledge that WFHM may make back-up copies for security, preservation, and accessibility purposes. I agree that WFHM may make this material available online under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 license (<https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/>), which allows others to share and adapt the material, as long as I am given appropriate credit. I understand material determined to be out of scope may be disposed of at the discretion of the WFHM.